What Students Say About ACIC	25

My experience with ACIC has been beyond great! - Archita Anika Gazi, 2012

You have definitely lightened up my path during my time in Australia. - Assison LIM, 2013

The services ACIC provided to students make our study life in overseas much easier and more importantly it helps us find a sense of belonging when we were far away from home.

- Ruitong HU, 2011

Director's Welcome

As the Founder and Director of ACIC, I am proud of ACIC's reputation as one of the best consulting firms in the world for Australian education.

Since I started the centre in 1988, it has always been about looking after our students and guiding their future with the best possible service. We take our job of providing advice to students very seriously as we believe the choices they make about education today will have a significant impact on their lives in the future.

Up to this time, I am still overseeing the operation and ensuring that we apply the same philosophy to our students. This is what makes ACIC unique - our reliable advice and professional service. This is why ACIC is the most recommended education consultant. I am always very happy to hear that so many of our students have now graduated and lead successful lives in their respective ways.

The last 25 years has been a long and rewarding journey. We look forward to helping more students and families to achieve their dreams in the many years ahead.

Zhe Xu, 2013

ACIC has all rounded follow-up services with very good attitude.

Yang Li, 2005

ACIC's Team

Each student is assigned a professional consultant so that you receive personal one-on-one service. However, behind the scenes, we have a whole team of staff looking after each student case including those dealing with schools or Immigration Departments, so your chances of getting your applications approved or getting your problems solved are much higher.

The entire process has been much easier than I expected, with the help of ACIC. All staff were friendly, helpful and organized to get my application lodged as quickly as possible. – Ashani Abeyakoon, 2013

A part of my success would never have come without the assistance of an active and reliable team of ACIC. – Brian Nguyen, 2009

Counselling & Migration Team

Nalumi QIN COUNSELLING MANAGER

Nalumi completed a Bachelor of English from Shanghai International Studies University in July 2000. After that, she studied the Master of Commerce from the University of Sydney in 2001 and joined ACIC's counselling team in 2002.

With over 10 years of experience, Nalumi is extremely nice and responsible to students. This is reflected by the fact that she has won the Best Customer Service Award for many years.

Nalumi's expertise lies in her understanding of student needs and then ability to analyse and provide students with the best study options.

Even after her students have enrolled, Nalumi will regularly contact her students to make sure they are studying well and they are progressing well with their studies and life in Australia.

Under Nalumi's guidance, thousands of students have successfully obtained Australian degrees and many have also gone on to obtain PR as well.

"I admire her for her enthusiasm, patience as well as her professional attitude."

- Jialei Tao, 2008

ACIC has the most experienced counselling and migration team. Many of our education consultants have been working at ACIC for over 10 years. Their industry knowledge and experience are second to none. This means that you will speak with experts who understand your needs and know how to provide you with the best support.

Jocelyn LIU SENIOR CONSULTANT

Jocelyn started her life in Australia in 2007 after the completion of Bachelor of Laws in China.

As an international student, Jocelyn achieved outstanding academic results and graduated with two Master's degrees: one from the University of Queensland with a Master of Laws and a second from Macquarie University with a Master in Translation and Interpretation.

Before joining ACIC, Jocelyn was also an IELTS teacher.

As a Senior Education Consultant, Jocelyn has extensive experience in providing education consultancy service.

She enjoys sharing with students her own experiences as an international student.

She is also passionate about her role and her mission is to advise students on academic pathways and to support them in adapting to their life and study in a different culture.

"She's thorough & up-to-date with her information and not just with the admissions but with all the policies & rules as well."

- Nishant Kohli, 2012

Kitty KWONG

ACCOUNT MANAGER

Kitty has been living in Australia for more than 20 years and studied in Australia from high school including the HSC.

Kitty graduated from UTS with a Bachelor of Business (Tourism Management) and has previously worked in Cathay Pacific and United Airlines.

Kitty joined ACIC in 2002 and has over 10 years of education consulting experience.

She is a friendly, patient and compassionate person. In addition, she speaks English, Cantonese and Mandarin.

These qualities enable her to communicate and counsel students from different countries and at different stages.

She is a very detailed person so she looks after her students very well in both the big and small things ranging from applications to enrolments, to different aspects of a student's study life in Australia.

"She is more like a friend than an agent during the period I struggled with my IELTS test."

- Raymond Chen, 2009

All staff members at ACIC are well educated and talented. All of them have completed a tertiary degree from universities in Australia and New Zealand. They are high academic achievers and have first-hand knowledge of Australian education and life.

Bonnie YAN

EDUCATION CONSULTANT

Bonnie is a graduate from two top universities. She received her Bachelor of Commerce from the University of Sydney and her Master of Commerce from the University of New South Wales.

After graduation, Bonnie managed to gain Australian PR based on her outstanding academic background.

Before joining ACIC, Bonnie was involved in counselling international students through the role of Student Service Officer in an accounting training firm.

She accumulated extensive experience in handling student enquiries and understanding student needs. She also possesses strong communication and analytical skills, which enable her to identify the unique needs of each individual student.

With rich work experience from her previous job, Bonnie joined the ACIC team with great enthusiasm.

She has developed her career goal of helping international students to achieve their dreams in Australia and she will share her successful study and migration experience with ACIC students.

"She always updates me with the latest news and handles my case with caution and enthusiasm."

- Elda DONG, 2014

Amy ZHANG

EDUCATION CONSULTANT

Amy started her studies in Australia as a Year 11 student and after achieving excellent results in the HSC, she was able to enrol in the Bachelor of Psychology at UNSW.

She successfully completed the degree with honours in 2007 and further developed her counselling skills with a Master of Applied Social Science from the Australian College of Applied Psychology.

Before joining ACIC, Amy worked as an Intern Psychologist and was involved in a range of jobs including child mentoring, running therapeutic groups and providing counselling support services to a wide variety of people, all of which prepared Amy for her current role with ACIC.

Amy joined ACIC in 2011 and she is one of our most well-liked consultants. Designing the best study and career plans for students is one of her strengths. She cares about and understands the needs and difficulties of being an international student.

Over the years with ACIC, Amy has assisted many international students to achieve their study goals.

"She's been consistently patient and helpful when dealing with my application. She is just amazing."

- Yiwei LIU, 2013

We strive to deliver the highest quality of customer service and provide the most updated information and reliable advice to our students. To achieve this, all ACIC staff undertake regular training in-house and by institution personnel, and visit school campuses to acquire first-hand information about their facilities and services.

Linda SHEN

EDUCATION CONSULTANT

Linda received her Bachelor of Finance from La Trobe University in 2008 and she was awarded Academic Excellent Certification by the Faculty Dean.

After that, she attained a Master's degree from the University of Melbourne, majoring in Management (Accounting). As an international student, Linda's performance was outstanding.

Linda is known as a helpful and caring person who reaches out to other international students within the universities.

She is gifted in supporting and mentoring new international students as a student mentor and she was involved in the Career Mentoring Program jointly organised by the University of Melbourne and Siemens Limited. She also has experience in teaching including taking up the roles of Chinese Language tutor, Piano tutor and Accounting tutor.

As an Education Consultant at ACIC, Linda intends to bring into any situation her knowledge and experience to assist international students in realising their dreams.

"I'm very happy she can simply read my mind and give me tailored advice."

- Rongrong XUAN, 2014

Eric WU

SENIOR CONSULTANT REGISTERED MIGRATION AGENT

After graduating from Shanghai International Studies University with a Bachelor's degree, Eric pursued his postgraduate studies in Australia.

He first attained a Master of Commerce from the University of Sydney followed by a GC in Migration Law and Practice from the Australian National University.

Eric is also a Registered Migration Agent (MARN: 0854244), a Member of Migration Institute of Australia (MIA 3841) and a Justice of the Peace (Registration: 200138).

Eric joined ACIC in 2003 and has been involved in education and migration counselling services for more than 10 years.

Eric is experienced in a wide range of areas including designing pathways for students leading to migration.

He has successfully assisted thousands of students in getting their Australia visa.

" From the first day I stepped into ACIC office to the day I got my PR granted, Eric had been showing his professional qualities."

- Runqian Liu, 2013

Apart from their extensive knowledge and experience, our staff are also friendly and patient individuals. This is reflected in all the positive testimonials we have received from students in the past about their experience with ACIC (you can see these testimonials on our website).

Alice WU

MIGRATION ASSISTANT

Alice first came to Australia to study in 2007. Based on her outstanding high school results and being awarded the First Grade Scholarship, she successfully enrolled at the University of Western Sydney and completed the Bachelor of Interpreting and Translation with excellent academic results.

Her outstanding academic achievements also earned her a place on the School of Humanities and Communication Arts' Dean's Merit List.

After graduation, Alice worked as a Translator and Column writer at an Australian Chinese Daily Newspaper.

She then joined ACIC's team in 2013 as our Migration Assistant.

In this role, Alice is responsible for assisting our Migration Consultant to prepare and manage important documentations, as well as liaising with various external governing bodies.

Her excellent English and communication skills combined with her own previous experience as an international student enable her to understand the migration needs of students and assist them to achieve successful outcomes.

" With your guidance and help, we were able to accomplish an essential step in our lives."

Top Schools Recommend ACIC

As the leading education consultant in Australia, ACIC has provided the highest possible quality of service to international students for over 25 years. This has won the support and recommendation from both students and schools. You will see why from the 2013 messages in the following pages from the Vice-Chancellors, Deputy Vice-Chancellors, Directors of International Offices and other top officials in Australia's leading institutions.

Dr Michael Spence
Vice Chancellor & Principal

“The University of Sydney has been associated with ACIC since 1997, and takes great pleasure in congratulating ACIC on its 25th anniversary.”

The University of Sydney is one of Australia’s largest and most prestigious universities.

Established in 1850, it is Australia’s first university, and a member of the Group of Eight, Australia’s premier research intensive universities.

It is ranked in the top 100 universities in the world and amongst the top four in Australia.

Our current enrolment of approximately 50,000 students (including over 10,000 international students representing 147 nationalities), enjoy an academic experience of the highest quality.

Since its inception, The University of Sydney has built an enviable reputation for quality, credibility and integrity, and is held in high esteem by its students, staff, alumni, business, industry and government.

We are committed to maximising the potential of everyone in the global community we serve, seeking to develop curious minds that embrace challenge and change.

During the past 160 years, we have maintained a long and proud tradition of excellence in education, and are relentless in our efforts to provide a fertile environment where the brightest minds flourish.

The University of Sydney has been associated with ACIC since 1997, and takes great pleasure in congratulating ACIC on its 25th anniversary.

Over the years, the relationship between our two organisations has grown from strength to strength and the University considers ACIC an invaluable partner assisting the University’s international student recruitment efforts.

The University acknowledges the high quality professional service ACIC provides to international students, and wishes ACIC every success in the years ahead.

I am very satisfied with the services from ACIC. Especially from my consultant Kitty, who has helped me to finish my course in bachelor and master, and to gain my qualification as a registered nurse in Australia.

Yun Tang, China 2011

I have obtained my PR! Really thankful for ACIC, especially all your help throughout the years. From when I studied at high school to Sydney Uni and Insearch/UTS. Thanks very much - also Eric as well!

Jianfei Wu, China 2009

ACIC is not only a student agent, they have been helping and guiding me since I arrived at this unfamiliar city. The friendly and experienced staff constantly provides me suggestions regarding my study plans and life styles. They have been taking care of me like parents.

Chia Chi Lin, Taiwan 2006

I am really grateful to the help from ACIC and Kitty so that I do not need to worry about applying to universities. Thanks also to ACIC Sydney office and especially to Kitty who has helped and taken care of me.

Brian Nguyen, Vietnam 2009

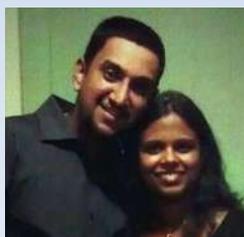

I have to appreciate all ACIC staff for their kindness, reliability and responsibility for every students. With ACIC's assistance, the stress over the pre- and post-HSC period could be a lot more relief.

Say About ACIC

Qian Cao, China 2007

I was a student with poor academic performance, but with the excellent advice from ACIC, I succeeded in a very short period of time. Whenever I had a problem, ACIC always gave me professional advice and helped me to solve it quickly. I believe ACIC is the best agency in Sydney.

Surani Abeyakoon, Sri Lanka 2012

I would like to thank Nalumi who helped me during my years as a student and then introduced us to Eric. Eric has been very helpful in the whole process of applying for our TR and PR. He has always responded promptly even to the smallest issues we have had.

Silong Lin, China 2011

ACIC helped me to apply UNSW foundation in 2008 and I graduated at the end of 2011. I got a Dean's Award for Academic Excellence in Australian School of Business. I'm really happy and that's the milestone in my Australian education life.

Yixuan He, China 2012

With the help of Eric, I was able to gain PR in such short time. I really appreciate the professional advice and service provided by ACIC, they are the best! Thank you Eric, thank you ACIC!

Yu-Wen Liao, Taiwan 2009

With their professional experience in the education industry for more than 20 years and latest course information, ACIC helps each student to plan for studies individually according to their unique goals. ACIC is the best choice an international student can make.

Nestorovic Nenad, Serbia 2014

I would like to thank Nalumi and her team for all their hard work and help with my visa. They applied for the visa on my behalf free of charge and in less than a week my student visa was granted. It will be my absolute pleasure to recommend ACIC to anyone seeking advice!!

“Hi Nalumi, I’m Victor Lin... You helped me to apply for foundation and university course in 2008. I graduated at the end of this year. I appreciate that you helped me to deal with those visa stuff before and I have a very good news to share with you now. I got a Dean’s Award for Academic Excellence in Australian School of Business. My name will also be published on Sydney Morning Herald later. I’m really happy and that’s the milestone in my Australian education life.”
